

Not for ourselves alone • Ehara mō matou anake

Fairplay Code for Parents and Supporters

Good sport and sportsmanship is about having a positive attitude. As a parent or spectator, you can set the right tone and help make the game a success. Play your part - play fair. To the best of your ability you will:

- encourage your child to play within the rules and respect officials' and coaches' decisions
- teach your child to respect the efforts of their opponents
- remember that children learn best by example so you will applaud good plays/performances by both your child's team and their opponents
- give positive comments that motivate and encourage continued effort
- support your child's efforts and performance
- support and thank the coaches, officials and other volunteers who give their time to conduct the event for your child
- help when asked by a coach or official
- respect the rights, dignity and worth of all people involved in the game, regardless of their gender, ability or cultural background
- show respect in the way you act and communicate.